

World Seabird Governing Committee

1. World Seabird Conference should be organised again
2. Communication between “seabirders” enhanced through website www.seabirds.net
3. No new organisation to be formed, rather a committee representing all seabird groups, with perhaps core group representing geographical regions (continents)
4. Interim committee recruited from current Int Steering Group, recruiting new members from seabird groups